VOLUME XI INDEX

No. 1, MARCH 1998 1-90
No. 2, JUNE 1998 91-180
No. 3, SEPTEMBER 1998 181-286
No. 4, DECEMBER 1998 287-392

A

Ability to Pay, 98-100; attracting, holding people, 99; balanced equation illustration, 105; basic model, 103-105; basis of, 98; competitiveness, 99; concept, 94-95; equation brought into balance, 105-106; innovative development and, 98; model process and, 101-103; out of balance equation, 105. See also Need-Ability to Pay equation Agency theory, 36, 43-44

Alfred, T., "Changing the Family Business through Action Research," 311-323

Anxiety: consultant management of, 209-210; family and, 195-196; triangling and, 195-196

Aronoff, C. E., "Megatrends in Family Business," 181-185

Articles: "Building Communities of Learning in Family Business Programs," 363-375; "Changing the Family Business through Action Research," 311-323; "Current State of Family Business Theory and Practice as Reflected in Family Business Review 1988–1997," 287-295; "Defining and Describing Family Business Ownership Configurations," 305-310; "Defining the New Professional: The Family Business Counselor," 349-354; "Ethics in Personal Behavior in Family Business," 325-336; "Family Business Consultants as Leaders," 187-192; "Financial Perspective on Structure, Conduct, and Performance in the Family Firm: An Empirical Study, A," 35-45; "Handling Transitions From Mother to Son in the Family Business: The Knotty Issues," 229-238; "Happy Landings: The Opportunity to Fly Again," 275-280; "Important Attributes of Successors in Family Businesses: An Exploratory Study," 19-29; "Leadership, Legacy, and Emotional Process in Family Business," 207-213; "Megatrends in Family Businesses," 181-185; "Multiple Roles in Serving Families in Business," 261-266; "Nepotism: An Interdisciplinary Model," 297-303; "Revisiting the Study of Family Businesses: Methodological Challenges, Dilemmas, and Alternative Approaches," 239-252; "Rise of Women in Family Firms: A Call for Research Now, The," 215-218; "Rough Corporate Justice," 91-106; "Significance of Family Business in the Netherlands, The," 121-134; "Social Psychology of Family Shareholder Dynamics, The," 253-260; "'Softer Side' of Consulting to Business-Owning Families: Understanding Our Clients and Ourselves, The," 193-205; "Strategic Questions for University-Based Family Business Programs," 355-361; "Study of Practice Utilization in Family Businesses, The," 107-119; "Three Proposals for Interdisciplinary Study," 267-274; "Trust Catalyst in Family-Owned Businesses, The," 1-16; "What is Continuity?," 337-347; "Women's Pathways to Participation and Leadership in the Family-Owned Firm," 219-228

Australian Family Business Questionnaire (AFBQ), 53-54

Ayres, G. R., "Rough Corporate Justice," 91-106

B

Baker, K. G., "Leadership, Legacy, and Emotional Process in Family Business," 207-213

Barach, J. A., Leadership and the Job of the Executive, reviewed, 169-172

Barnes, L. B., "Trust Catalyst in Family-Owned Businesses, The," 1-16

Beer Blast: The Inside Story of the Brewing Industry's Bizarre Battles for Your Money, reviewed, 81-83

Behavior, context and, 197

Ben-Yoseph, M., "Women Entrepreneurs in Romania, Poland, and the United States: Cultural and Family Influence on Strategy and Growth," 61-72

Berry, J., review by, 169-172

Beyond Blame: A New Way of Resolving Conflicts in Relationships, reviewed, 84-86

Birth order, 194-195

Book Reviews: Beer Blast: The Inside Story of the Brewing Industry's Bizarre Battles for Your Money, 81-83; Beyond Blame: A New Way of Resolving Conflicts in Relationships, 84-86; Family Business in India, 176-177; Family Business Management Handbook, The, 174-175; Leadership and the Job of the Executive, 169-172; Private World of Family Business, The, 172-173

Bowen Systems Theory, 207-209; consulting and, 209-210

Brown, F. H., "'Softer Side' of Consulting to Business-Owning Families: Understanding Our Clients and Ourselves, The," 193-205

"Building Communities of Learning in Family Business Programs," 363-375

C

Capital base, succession and, 93-94
Case Studies: "Salvatore Ferragamo, SpA," 144-163
Casey family, example of owner-transfer, 200-202
Center for Applied Research, 338
Change, 198-199; faith, generosity, forgiveness and, 199-200; homeostasis, 199
"Changing the Family Business through Action Research," 311-323
Chief financial officer (CFO): family versus nonfamily, 35-36
Chrisman, J. J., "Important Attributes of Successors in Family Businesses: An Exploratory Study," 19-29
Chua, J. H., "Important Attributes of Successors in Family Businesses: An Exploratory Study," 19-29
Coaching family members for leadership, 373
Collaboration, constructive conflicts, 77-78
Conflicts: collaboration and constructive, 77-78; nature of in family businesses, 75-76; resolution of in family businesses, 76-77; three types of, 75-76
Conformance with majority, social psychology and, 256-257
Congruity of roles, 261-262
Connolly, G., Private World of Family Business, The, reviewed, 172-173
Consultants, 374; codes of conduct and, 264; dual relationships, symptoms of, 264-265; five areas of shadow and, 188-190; happy landings metaphor and, 277; less-than-best practices and, 263-264; multiple roles of, 261-262; personal agenda, defining, 204; professional boundaries and, 262-263; self-examination, growth of, 187-188; shadows, application of, 190-192; succession planning and, 276
Consulting: anxiety management and, 209-210; Bowen Systems Theory, 209-210; Casey family example, owner-transfer, 200-202; complexity of, 202-203; context defining behavior issue and, 197; faith of family members and, 204; Greeley family, 235-236; perception bias and, 196; process, structure and, 203; shared responsibility of, 197-198; strategizing work, importance of, 203-204; Suarez family, 232-235; system change, issues of, 196-198; trend, 185; use of self and, 204-205; women CEOs, 231-232
Context, behavior and, 197
Continuity, 337-338; "Business Continues in Fact but not in Spirit" (case), 343-344; dimensions of, 346; elements of, 339-340; "Fourth-Generation Family Business Commits to Family Ownership" (case), 344-346; meaning of, 338; "Services Business Mission—We Will Change the World of Health Care" (case), 340-341; "Software Company Considers its Options" (case), 341-343. See also Succession
Cook, James, 200-202
Cosier, R. A., "Hidden Strengths in Family Business: Functional Conflict, The," 75-78
Cross-family learning, 370-371
"Current State of Family Business Theory and Practice as Reflected in Family Business Review 1988–1997," 287-295

D

Danes, S. M., "Revisiting the Study of Family Businesses: Methodological Challenges, Dilemmas, and Alternative Approaches," 239-252
Dashew, L., review by, 174-175
Datta, S., Family Business in India, reviewed, 176-177
Daughters, leadership choice and, 216
Davis, J. A., "Social Psychology of Family Shareholder Dynamics, The," 253-260
"Defining and Describing Family Business Ownership Configurations," 305-310
"Defining the New Professional: The Family Business Counselor," 349-354
Deindividuation, social psychology and, 258
Differentiation of self, 208
Diffusion of responsibility, social psychology and, 257-258
Discovery Research project, 311-312; action research, change and, 313; action research process and, 320-321; business governance, advisory board recruitment, selection and, 317; CEO, succession process and, 315-316; CEO's spouse and, 318; compensation, nonfamily, 317-318; continuity planning and, 316; expected outcomes of, 313-315; family governance and, 317; goals of, 312; limitations of, 321-323; meetings, relationships, norms for, 319-320; open discussions and, 318-319; problem solving and, 318; sibling, role negotiation and, 320; sibling competition and, 315; strategic thinking, planning and, 316-317; successor development, career plans and, 315
Dolan, C., "Defining and Describing Family Business Ownership Configurations," 305-310
Drozdow, N., "What is Continuity?" 337-347
Dual relationships. See Roles, multiple
Dumas, C., "Women's Pathways to Participation and Leadership in the Family-Owned Firm," 219-228
Dyer Jr., W. G., "Current State of Family Business Theory and Practice as Reflected in Family Business Review 1988–1997," 287-295

E

Eckhardt, D. R., Leadership and the Job of the Executive, reviewed, 169-172
Economy: Netherlands, family businesses and, 128-129; worldwide, family businesses and, 121-123
Education: trends, 185. See also University-based family business programs
Emotional process, 209
Entrepreneurs. See Women entrepreneurs
Estate planning, 267-268; effective management and, 271-272
"Ethics in Personal Behavior in Family Business," 325-336
Ethics study, 326; age factor variable in, 329-330; best practices and, 333-334; perceived personal behavior, frequencies, 328-329; power and, 330-332; questionnaire, 326; sample, 327-328; succession and, 332-333

F

Fair market value, 94
Families: behavior, context and, 197; birth order, gender and, 194-195; defined, 240, 242; nonfamily business participation and, 109-110, 114-115; past and, 194; self and perception and, 193-194; shared responsibility of, 197-198; triangling and, 195-196
"Family Business Consultants as Leaders," 187-192
Family business counselors: business versus family system and, 351; communication and, 351-352; defined, 349-350; distinguishing, 350-353; experience of, 351; partnership or engagement? 350; planning tools, cautions regarding and, 352-353; psychologists, therapists versus, 353-354; qualifications, multidisciplinary for, 353
Family businesses: business objectives, management systems of, 51; defined, 50, 107, 240, 242, 305; dimensions of issue, measure of, 54-57; family versus business needs in, 107-108; gender issues of, 51; healthy management cycle for, 314; opportunity building and, 275-277; power and, 330-332; practice utilization and, 108-109; studies of, alternative approach to, 242-247; studies of, sampling methods and, 241; studies on, lack of, 239-240; study, method of, 51-53; Trust Catalysts and, 15-16; underdevelopment of theory for, 50; uniqueness of, 51; women entrepreneurs and, 63-64
Family Business in India, reviewed, 176-177
Family business learning networks: assumptions about, 365-367; coaching family/business leadership, 373; consultants and, 374; interpersonal relationship skill development, 372; learning communities and, 367-370; overview of, 363-365; transformational learning activities and, 370-372
Family Business Management Handbook, The, reviewed, 174-175
Family Business Review: articles, types of, 288-291; article topics in, 291; author collaboration in, 293-294; authorship by discipline, profession in, 292-293; implications of, 294-295; quantitative research in, 288-290
Family diagram, succession and, 210-212
Ferragamo: business overview, 145-154; early history of, 161; family involvement in, 156-157; family meeting of, 158; management, 156-157; manufacturing, 151-152; marketing, distribution, 152-154; Mazzalovo, Geraldo's presentation to, 157-158; organizational units of, 146; products of, 148-151; Wanda's role at, 156; Wanda's takeover of, 161; work environment of, 157
Fielding Oil Company, Trust Catalysts and, 12-15
"Financial Perspective on Structure, Conduct, and Performance in the Family Firm: An Empirical Study, A," 35-45
Financial responsibility: agency theory and, 36, 43-44; family versus nonfamily, 35-36; literature review of, 36-37
Financial responsibility (study): financial policies identified, 40-41; performance of business and, 41-42; sample used, 37; size, age, protagonism, 37-40
Financial sophistication trend, 183
Fitzgerald, M. A., "Revisiting the Study of Family Businesses: Methodological Challenges, Dilemmas, and Alternative Approaches," 239-252
Flören, R. H., "Significance of Family Business in the Netherlands, The," 121-134
"Four Factor Model: A Guide to Planning Next Generation Involvement in the Family Firm, A," 135-140
Frishkoff, P. A., "Strategic Questions for University-Based Family Business Programs," 355-361

G

Gallo, M. A.: "Ethics in Personal Behavior in Family Business," 325-336; "Financial Perspective on Structure, Conduct, and Performance in the Family Firm: An Empirical Study, A," 35-45
Gender, 194-195; succession planning and, 221
Generational transition, succession planning versus, 181-182

Goodman, J. M., "Defining the New Professional: The Family Business Counselor," 349-354
Gordon, B., review by, 84-86
Greeley family, 230-231; background story on, 235-236
Group cohesiveness, social psychology and, 255
Group think, 257
Gundry, L. K., "Women Entrepreneurs in Romania, Poland, and the United States: Cultural and Family Influence on Strategy and Growth," 61-72

H

Haley Jr., J. D., "Study of Practice Utilization in Family Businesses, The," 107-119
"Handling Transitions from Mother to Son in the Family Business: The Knotty Issues," 229-238
"Happy Landings: The Opportunity to Fly Again," 275-280
Harvard Business School, case study, 144-163
Harvey, M., "Hidden Strengths in Family Business: Functional Conflict, The," 75-78
Hasbin Molding Co., 276-277
Haynes, G. W., "Revisiting the Study of Family Businesses: Methodological Challenges, Dilemmas, and Alternative Approaches," 239-252
Heck, R. K. Z., "Revisiting the Study of Family Businesses: Methodological Challenges, Dilemmas, and Alternative Approaches," 239-252
Herrera, R. M., "Social Psychology of Family Shareholder Dynamics, The," 253-260
"Hidden Strengths in Family Business: Functional Conflict, The," 75-78
Hillside Plastics, 8-9
Hobson Industries, mistrust in, 6-7
Hubler, T. M., "Family Business Consultants as Leaders," 187-192

I

"Important Attributes of Successors in Family Businesses: An Exploratory Study," 19-29
Interpersonal relationship, skill development, 372
"Interview with Massimo Ferragamo," 165-168
Intrafamily learning, 371-372
Invited Commentary, "Women Entrepreneurs in Romania, Poland, and the United States: Cultural and Family Influence on Strategy and Growth," 61-72

J

Jaffe, D. T., "Building Communities of Learning in Family Business Programs," 363-375
Jay, C., Private World of Family Business, The, reviewed, 172-173
Johnson, S., "Changing the Family Business through Action Research," 311-323

K

Karofsky, P. I., "Interview with Massimo Ferragamo," 165-168
Kaslow, F. W., "Handling Transitions from Mother to Son in the Family Business: The Knotty Issues," 229-238
Kaye, K., "Happy Landings: The Opportunity to Fly Again," 275-280
Krasnow, H. C., "Three Proposals for Interdisciplinary Study," 267-274
Kuhn, T., 294-295

L

LaChapelle, K., "Trust Catalyst in Family-Owned Businesses, The," 1-16
Laws, nepotism and, 300
Leadership: barriers to women in, 219-221; coaching, 373; daughters as best choice for, 216; defined, 209; framework for women, 224-226; opportunities for women in, 221; research on changing face of, 216-218
"Leadership, Legacy, and Emotional Process in Family Business," 207-213
Leadership, legacy, succession planning and, 210-212
Leadership and the Job of the Executive, reviewed, 169-172
Learning: dialogue, 368-369; double-loop, 368; family business learning networks and, 367-370; single-loop, 367-368; transformational, 370-372. See also University-based family business programs
Legacy, 209
Legal services: estate planning, 267-268, 271-272; family businesses and, 267-268; liquidity agreements, 268, 270, 272-273; objective counsel and, 273-274; prenuptial agreements, 268-271; prenuptial agreements, 267
Leon-Guerrero, A. Y., "Study of Practice Utilization in Family Businesses, The," 107-119
Liquidity agreements, 268, 270, 272-273

M

McCann III, J. E., "Study of Practice Utilization in Family Businesses, The," 107-119
Management: professional versus entrepreneurial trend, 183; as team effort, 182
Management practices, 110, 115-117
Marr, Bob, 2-4
Marr Companies, The, 2-4, 4-6; Trust Catalyst in, 4
Measurements of family business characteristics, 49-50; Australian Family Business Questionnaire (AFBQ), 53-54; definitions of family businesses and, 50; dimensions of, 54-57; method for study of, 51-53; methodological concerns and, 51; psychometric properties and, 54-56; study objectives for, 51; underdevelopment of theory and, 50
Megatrends: education, consulting and, 185; financial sophistication, 183; generational transition versus succession planning, 181-182; management as team effort, 182; ownership as team effort, 182; professional management versus entrepreneurial, 183; professional services more sensitive, 184-185; retirement, new roles in, 184; strategic management emphasis, 182-183; women's roles expanding, 184
"Megatrends in Family Business," 181-185
Mission statements, 109; utilization of, 113-114
Model process for guiding family businesses. See Ability to Pay
Multigenerational transmission process, 208
"Multiple Roles in Serving Families in Business," 261-266

N

National Foundation for Women Business Owners (NFWBO), 215
Need: budget-driven planning model, 96; concept, 94-95; defining, five steps of, 95-97; economic, 95-96; economic goals, 96; running numbers, 97; sharpening, polishing, 97. See also Need-Ability to Pay equation
Need-Ability to Pay equation, 100-101; time to sell and, 100; transfer tax and, 101. See also Ability to Pay
Nelton, S.,"Rise of Women in Family Firms: A Call for Research Now, The," 215-218
"Nepotism: An Interdisciplinary Model," 297-303
Nepotism: anecdotal articles on, 297-298; behavioral sciences and, 300; defined, 297; environmental variables and, 301-302; finance, accounting, economic issues and, 300; human resource policies on, 298-299; legal issues and, 300; legal research articles on, 297; literature review on, 297-299; management science and, 301; new approaches regarding, 299-300
Netherlands: economy, family businesses and, 128-129; family businesses in, 121-122; family versus nonfamily businesses in, 129-130
Netherlands study: CEO, spouse, 125; family members in business, 125; history of businesses and, 125; largest family business in, 124-125; methodology, data collection, 123-124; results, 124-128; shareholders in family businesses, 125; succession planning, 128
NFWBO (National Foundation for Women Business Owners), 215

O

Ownership: collaborative, 306; configurations, 307; defined, 305-306; effective control and, 306; evolution, transitions and, 309; nonrelated families and, 306; "owner-managed," 306; as team effort, 182; trusts and, 306
Owner-transfer, example of, 200-202

P

Palmer, Parker, five areas of shadow and, 188-190
Perception bias, 196
Peter Pan Bus Lines, Trust Catalysts and, 11-12
Polish women entrepreneurs, 63; approaches of, 69; challenges of, 70-71; characteristics of, 65-67; entrepreneurship trends and, 61-62; family role, influence on, 69-70; leadership style of, 70; motivations of, 67-69; opportunities for, 71. See also Women entrepreneurs
Popper, Karl, 295
Power, 330-332
Poza, E., "Changing the Family Business through Action Research," 311-323
Practice utilization, 107-108; family, nonfamily involvement, 114-115; family business system and, 108-109; management practices and, 115-117; mission statements and, 113-114; study questions, design and, 109-110; succession practices and, 117
Practice utilization study, 109-110; determinants of development, 109; family, nonfamily participation in, 109-110; management practices and, 110; measures, development, 111-112; measures, practice, 111; methods, sample , 111; mission statements and, 109;

results of, 112-116; succession-planning practices and, 110; theory, practice implications of, 117-119
Prenuptial agreements, 267; alternatives to, 269-270; benefits of, 268-269; costs of, 268; proposal for, 270-271
Private World of Family Business, The, reviewed, 172-173
Process conflict, 76
Projection process, 208-209

R

Rattler's Restaurants, Trust Catalyst and, 9-10
Relationship conflict, 75
Research: on leadership, changing face of, 216-218; succession and, 277-278; on women entrepreneurs, 221-222; on women entrepreneurs, results of, 222-224. See also Discovery Research project
"Research Note: Development of a Measure of the Characteristics of Family Business," 49-60
Responsibility, shared, 197-198
Retirement, 184
"Revisiting the Study of Family Businesses: Methodological Challenges, Dilemmas, and Alternative Approaches," 239-252
"Rise of Women in Family Firms: A Call for Research Now, The," 215-218
Roles, multiple: codes of conduct and, 264; consultants and, 261-262; less-than-best practices and, 263-264; minimizing risk of, 265; options for considering and, 265-266; professional boundaries and, 262-263; symptoms of dual relationship and, 264-265
Romanian women entrepreneurs, 63; approaches of, 69; challenges of, 70-71; characteristics of, 65-67; entrepreneurship trends and, 61-62; family's role, influence and, 69-70; leadership style of, 70; motivations of, 67-69; opportunities for, 71
Romanian women entrepreneurs. See Women entrepreneurs
Romano, C.: "Research Note: Development of a Measure of the Characteristics of Family Business," 49-60; review by, 176-177
"Rough Corporate Justice," 91-106
Rugg Manufacturing Company, The, Trust Catalysts and, 10-11

S

"Salvatore Ferragamo, SpA," case study, 144-163
Salvatore Ferragamo SpA. See Ferragamo
Sánchez, M., "Current State of Family Business Theory and Practice as Reflected in Family Business Review 1988–1997," 287-295
Schwass, J., review by, 172-173
Self perception, families and, 193-194
Shadow, five areas of, 188-190; consulting and, 190-192; denial of death, 190; fear around natural chaos, 189-190; functional atheism, 189; hostile universe, 189; insecurity, 189
Shareholder dynamics, 253-254; conformance with majority and, 256-257; deindividuation and, 258; diffusion of responsibility and, 257-258; group cohesiveness and, 255; social comparison theory and, 256; social power and, 258-259; social psychology of, 254-259
Sharma, P., "Important Attributes of Successors in Family Businesses: An Exploratory Study," 19-29
SHV, 124-125
"Significance of Family Business in the Netherlands, The," 121-134
Smyrnios, K., "Research Note: Development of a Measure of the Characteristics of Family Business," 49-60
Social comparison theory, social psychology and, 256
Social power, social psychology and, 258
Social psychology: conformance with majority and, 256-257; deindividuation and, 258; diffusion of responsibility and, 257-258; group cohesiveness and, 255; shareholder dynamics and, 254-259; social comparison theory and, 256; social power and, 258-259
"Social Psychology of Family Shareholder Dynamics, The," 253-260
"'Softer Side' of Consulting to Business-Owning Families: Understanding Our Clients and Ourselves, The," 193-205
Stages of family businesses, 91-92; institutional, 92; professional, 92; stable, 92; survival, 92; survival to institutional, 92-93
Stavrou, E. T., "Four Factor Model: A Guide to Planning Next Generation Involvement in the Family Firm, A," 135-140
Strategic management trends, 182-183
"Strategic Questions for University-Based Family Business Programs," 355-361
Studies: alternative, implications of, 247; alternative approach to family businesses, 242-247; data analysis issues, 246-247; data collection and, 245; interviews and, 244-245; lack of, on family businesses, 239-240; previous sampling methods of, 241; respondents in, 244; response rate, 245-246; sampling method, family businesses and, 242-244; screening instruments and, 244

"Study of Practice Utilization in Family Businesses, The," 107-119
Suarez family, 230-231; background story on, 232-235
Succession, 19, 91, 332-333; business survival and, 107-108; capital base preservation during, 93-94; consulting orientation and, 279-280; family diagram and, 210-212; measuring business worth and, 94; Netherlands, planning in, 128; planning practices, 110, 117; research agenda for, 277-278; resistance to change and, 199; value added, next-generation opportunity, 275-277; women CEOs and, 237. See also Continuity
Succession planning: business factor in, 137-138; family factor in, 138-139; four factor groupings for, 136; four factors in, 139-140; gender and, 221; generational transition versus, 181-182; intergenerational business involvement, 135-136; market factor in, 139; personal factor in, 136-137
Successors: attributes of, 27-29; CEO leadership and, 315-316; competence of, 20; continuity planning and, 316; Discovery Research project and, 315; family standing of, 20; involvement with business of, 21; literature review on, 19-21; personality traits of, 21; relationship with family of, 20; relationship with incumbent of, 19-20; sibling competition and, 315; survey of, 21-22; trust and, 28-29; Trust Catalysts as, 11-12
Survey of successor's attributes, 21-22; attributes, ranking, 22-25; data collection, 21; data validation tests, 22; determinants of attributes, importance ratings, 25-27; respondents and, 22; sample, 21; variables, measures used, 21-22

T

Tanewski, G., "Research Note: Development of a Measure of the Characteristics of Family Business," 49-60
Task conflict, 75
Theory Note: "Four Factor Model: A Guide to Planning Next Generation Involvement in the Family Firm, A," 135-140; "Hidden Strengths in Family Business: Functional Conflict, The," 75-78
"Three Proposals for Interdisciplinary Study," 267-274
Transformational learning activities, 370-372; cross-family, 370-371; intrafamily learning, 371-372
Transition: Need, Ability to Pay, yardsticks for, 94-95; Need, Ability To Pay (concept), 94-95
Triangles, 208-209
Triangling, 195-196
Trust: beyond family, 12; four relational characteristics of, 2-3, 4-5; Hobson Industries and, 6-7; leadership and, 1; power of, 1; successors and, 28-29
Trust Catalyst, 15-16; defined, 1-2; Fielding Company and, 12-15; high-status friend as, 3; Marr Companies and, 4; mother, wife as (Hillside Plastics), 8-9; mother, wife as (Rattler's Restaurants), 9-10; outside advisor as (Fielding Oil Company), 12-15; son-in-law as (The Rugg Manufacturing Company), 10-11; successor's role as, 11-12
"Trust Catalyst in Family-Owned Businesses, The," 1-16
Two-Dimensional Model of Conflict Resolution (TDMCR), 76-77

U

United States women entrepreneurs, 62-63; approaches of, 69; challenges of, 70-71; characteristics of, 65-67; family's role, influence on, 69-70; leadership style of, 70; motivations of, 67-69; opportunities for, 71. See also Women entrepreneurs
University-based family business programs: challenges of, questions for, 361; clients for, 357; funding for, 360-361; heads of, 357-358; location of within school, 356-357; reasons for, 355-356; services of, 358-360

V

Vago, M., "Multiple Roles in Serving Families in Business," 261-266
Vilaseca, A.,"Financial Perspective on Structure, Conduct, and Performance in the Family Firm: An Empirical Study, A," 35-45
Vinton, K. L., "Nepotism: An Interdisciplinary Model," 297-303

W

Ward, J., "Defining and Describing Family Business Ownership Configurations," 305-310
Ward, J. L., review by, 81-83
"What is Continuity?" 337-347
Whyte, David, 188
Winter, M., "Revisiting the Study of Family Businesses: Methodological Challenges, Dilemmas, and Alternative Approaches," 239-252
Wiseman, K. K., "Leadership, Legacy, and Emotional

Process in Family Business," 207-213
Wolkoff, R. L., "Three Proposals for Interdisciplinary Study," 267-274
Women CEOs: common factors of, 229-230; consultation process and, 231-232; contemporaneous family dynamics of, 230-231; succession and, 237; succession to sons, 230-231, 231-232
Women entrepreneurs, 61, 219; barriers to participation, leadership and, 219-221; family influence on, 63-64; framework for participation, leadership of, 224-227; literature review on, 219-221; opportunities, barriers to, 62-64; opportunities for participation, leadership and, 221; research on, 221-222; research results on, 222-224. See also Polish women entrepreneurs; Romanian women entrepreneurs; United States women entrepreneurs
"Women Entrepreneurs in Romania, Poland, and the United States: Cultural and Family Influence on Strategy and Growth," 61-72
Women entrepreneurs (study): approach to start-up (results), 69; challenges for, 70-71; entrepreneurial, organizational characteristics (results), 65-67; entrepreneurial motivations (results), 67-69; entrepreneurial strategies, opportunities, barriers to growth (results), 67; family's role, influence (results), 69-70; implications for family business, 71-72; interview instruments for, 64; leadership styles (results), 70; opportunities for, 71; sample, 64
Women's leadership, 215-216; assertiveness and, 217; characteristics of, 217; children and, 218; children successors and, 218; daughters as best leadership choice and, 216; divorce and, 217; expanding roles of trend, 184; nonfamily employees and, 218; personal life and, 217; philanthropy and, 218; research on, 216-218; styles of, 217; successors and, 217
"Women's Pathways to Participation and Leadership in the Family-Owned Firm," 219-228